

I disagree with the proposal to autoupgrade novice and advanced callsigns to the next higher class. I believe reinstatement of privileges of the receded novice band to individuals that originally had those privileges should be authorized. There needs to be some incentive left, not something for nothing.